CHURCH OF THE TRANSFIGURATION

28 May 2017

Seventh Sunday of Easter

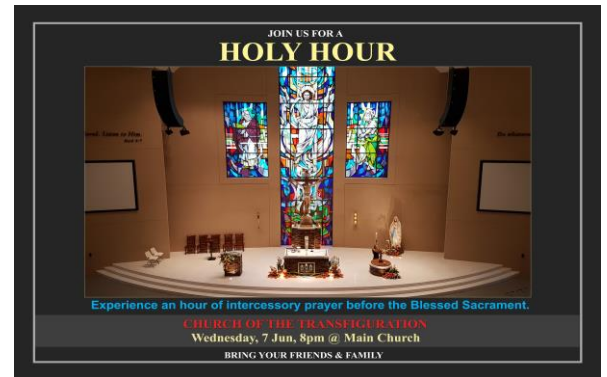

Acts 1: 12-14 • 1 Peter 4: 13-16 • John 17: 1-11

HOLY HOUR - WEDNESDAY, 7 JUNE 2017

8PM IN THE MAIN CHURCH

Experience an hour of intercessory prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Bring your friends and family along!

What does it take to serve the Lord?

A clear understanding of who we are serving, why we serve and how we serve.

Be aware of the pitfalls in serving: Pride, attachments, power, mediocrity, jealousy and envy, proving of self-worth.

Work becoming prayer; not being in a team; not being able to get along or embrace each other's weakness; not daring to speak up for fear of offending; taking every differing view by others as a personal attack.

Serving the Lord requires us to always be persevering in service, especially when the going gets tough. To be a part of and contribute towards the unity of the team. Our hearts are to be bigger than our pride and self.

One who serves must live a life of humility, obedience and self-sacrifice.

To always remember that we are called to serve. Therefore, this call accepted is a response to God, not to anyone or anything. We have a duty to protect this call and not give up so easily. For it is out of love that we serve. And love will always be tested and purified in order that we serve truly.
